The Central Bureau for Infra-Red Development* (Zentrales Entwicklungsamt Infrarot) in Berlin-Niederschönheide, Bruno-Bürgel-weg 69, has purchased an unknown number of sodium chloride prisms from VEB Carl Zeiss Jena within the past two months. Zeiss will continue to deliver them to the Institute.

25X1 Comment: The institute reportedly belongs to the DDR Academy of Sciences. It is not, however, listed in the most recent manual, published in 1950-1951, issued by the Academy.)
